HIGH SCHOOL MEN BEAT WOLVERINES

Niles Team is Given Drubbing by Mishawaka Aggre- gation.

In the closest game of basketball staged on the local floor this season, the Niles High school went down in defeat before the onslaughts of Coach Mueller's husky basket tossers Friday evening. The final count was 17 to 13, with the Maroon and White aggregation on the long end. Getting off to a snappy start, the home team caged two neat ringers before the visitors were able to locate the hoop.

The Maroon and White squad played their opponents of their feet during the first period and the half ended with Mishawaka on the long end of a 10 to 4 score. During this period the whole team worked with machine like precision and the Niles crew appeared baffled at the wonderful floor work and accurate passing of the locals.

Niles started the scoring of the second half with a pretty basket from the center of the floor. Mishawaka then took a spurt and piled up seven points in rapid succession. From then on the home team played a defensive game and the Wolverines were unable to overcome the lead. Wiess and Gage were easily the bright lights in the local line-up, although the work of Grady, Hunt and Graves was worthy of mention. Lee, center on the Niles quintet, played stellar ball for the losers.

Seconds Lose Game.

In a preliminary to the big game the Mishawaka second team lost to the Niles second team by the score of 14 to 6. Roughness was a feature of this contest, and the fray resembled a football game. The home team displayed a better brand of ball, but were unable to locate the basket.

The line-ups and summary of the first team game were as follows:

Mishawaka (17).	Niles (13).
Wiess .....	Luth
	Forward.
Graves .....	Moblechang
	Forward.
Hunt .....	Lee
	Center.
Brady .....	Schrump
	Guard.
Gage .....	Champion
	Guard.

Field Goals—Wiess 3, Graves 3, Hunt 1, Lee 2, Moblechang 1, Schrump 1.

Fouls—Wiess 3, Graves 1, Luth 5. Substitutions—Mishawaka: Montine for Hunt; Niles: Forest for Schrump for Lee, Anderson for Moblechang, Mason for Schrump. Time of halves—20 minutes. Referee—Rowe.

MISHAWAKANS DEFEAT BENDERS

South Bend Aggregation Has No Chance With Home Team Friday.

Here's the story: Mishawaka high school, 33; South Bend high school, 23. It was a great game from start to finish but the Benders didn't have a chance from the minute the referee's whistle announced the beginning of the fray until the smoke cleared from the field and found the home team at the long end of the count. The football game of last October was certainly avenged.

At the outset of the contest the locals took the lead and caged ringers after ringer in such rapid succession that the Tan and Blue aggregation appeared to be dazed. The Maroon and White forwards played rings around the South Bend guards and scored apparently at will. At the end of the first period the home team was on the long end of a 23 to 6 count while the Benders have only succeeded in scoring one field goal.

Makes Desperate Effort.

In the last half the locals realized that the game was safely stowed away and let down noticeably in both offensive and defensive play. The neighboring school made a desperate effort during this period to stage a comeback but whenever they were within scoring distance of the basket a maroon clad warrior would appear and dash their hopes against the wall and their heads against the floor.

An amusing incident occurred in the first period when Wiess was ordered off the floor on a charge of striking the referee. Excellent sportsmanship was displayed on the part of Coach Burnham of South Bend who was of the opinion that the assault was unintentional and asked that Wiess be permitted to remain in the game.

In conclusion can only be said that Mishawaka played brilliant ball throughout the entire squad deserves the credit which is theirs.

The lineup and summary follow:

Mishawaka (33)	South Bend (22)
Graves .....	Robacher
	Forward
Garman .....	Edwards
	Forward
Brady .....	Haas
	Center
Wiess .....	O'Dell
	Guard.
Gage .....	Scheer
	Guard.

Field goals—Brady 6, Wiess 4, Graves 3, Garman 3, Haas 4, Robacher 3, Edwards 1, Baumgartner 1. Fouls—Wiess 1, Robacher 4. Substitutions—A. Phillion for Gage; Baumgartner for Edwards.

Time of halves, 20 minutes. Referee—Arnold of Elkhart.

Seconds Lose.

In a preliminary game the South Bend second team defeated the Mishawaka scrubs by the score 10 to 8.

FOREWORD

THE work of the Miskodeed Staff of the Class of '21 is done. The hard task has been completed, and the Staff takes this opportunity to thank all those by whose loyal support the publication of the Miskodeed has been made possible. ☞ It has been the constant aim of the Staff to publish a Year Book of merit and now this volume, the result of many hours of labor, awaits your verdict. It is trusted that it may, on the whole, meet with your approval. We commend this annual to your appreciation.

FACULTY

D. W. HORTON

Indiana University, A. B., 1909, M. A., 1913
Chicago University, Summer Work

Our Superintendent is very popular with the students and teachers throughout the city and with the general public. His chief diversions outside of public school affairs are golf and volley ball, and from all reports he is very proficient in both.

CHARLES A. SEMLER

To our principal, who has made us realize
"what we want is not learning but Knowledge; that is the power to make learning answer its true end as a quickener of intelligence and a widener of our intellectual sympathies."

—LOWELL.

IRA. P. BAUMGARTNER,
English

Indiana University, A. B., 1920.

Although he has been with us only a few months, he has taken a great interest in all school affairs, especially the dances. His blushes are intensely interesting to the students.

ANNE IRENE BEUGNOT,
Language

Indiana University, A. B., 1917.

Indiana University, A. M., 1918.

Miss Beugnot is our popular French instructor. She has organized the French Club, and although it is one of the new features of the school, through her able assistance, it has proven a success. She is an energetic sponsor of the Sophomore class and was the coach of their class play.

NORMA BORTNER, Office

Winona Normal, 1914.

Norma is not much more than a school "kid" herself, and she is very much at home here because she is a graduate of M. H. S. She takes great interest in school affairs, and it is to Norma that everybody goes with their gossip and troubles.

EDWINA DAY, English

Indiana University, A. B., 1915.

Miss Day, head of the English Department, has been with us only one short year. However in this short time she has accomplished much and has won the favor of the students. Dramatics, Debates, the English Club and the Senior Class all thrive under Miss Day's direction.

HAZEL DOYLE, Commercial

Whitewater Normal, '06.

Capitol City Business College, '16.

Gregg School, Chicago, '19.

Miss Doyle came to us, filling the vacancy caused, by Miss Sleezer's resignation. She has proved to us her efficiency. No pupils, under her supervision, lack work. But tho' she is a hard task master during working hours, outside of class hours you will find her to be very jolly.

JUNE EDDINGFIELD, Language

Indiana University, A. B., 1913.

Fellow Bryn Mawr, 1913-'14.

European Fellow, 1915.

Miss Eddingfield is head of the language department. When not explaining Latin idioms to American ears she sponsors the Latin Club. She is a Senior Class sponsor, and is always willing to help them out of their troubles.

ESTALENA GRANTHAM, English

Indiana University, A. B., 1919.

Miss Grantham, of the English department, is another of our new teachers. Her splendid work in her regular classes as well as in dramatics and in the organization of two quartettes testifies to her ability to hold the interest of the students. Her popularity is attested by the fact that she is vice-president of the Board of Control, and is one of the Junior Class sponsors.

LAURA HUDELSON, English

Indiana University, A. B., 1918.

Miss Hudelson is one of our popular English instructors, and is a sponsor of the Junior Class. Her splendid coaching was a great factor in the success of the Junior Play.

HERBERT M. KABEL, Manual Training

Indiana University.
Chicago University.

Mr. Kabel and his smiles are still favorites in the halls of M. H. S. He continues at the head of the Industrial Department, but always finds the time to help us when we are in trouble. We can always depend on him as a good booster for our High School activities.

KATE KERN, Science

Michigan University, A. B., 1909.

Miss Kern is one of our "Old Timers" having been with us since 1913. She is one of the best boosters for school activities, and is always ready for a good time. She acts as sponsor for the Freshmen Class, who are grateful for her good advice. Besides all this, Miss Kern was appointed dean of the girls at the beginning of the last school year.

MILDRED KOTZ, Domestic Science

Stout Institute, 1917.

Miss Kotz reigns in the kitchen where she teaches the girls the art of cooking. She is the genius of our faculty for spreads, teas, and luncheons. The appetizing odors from the kitchen, have disquieting effects upon the students before dinner.

MARY P. LEAN, Art

Minnesota, A. B., 1919.

Miss Lean has only been with us a year but in that time, she has done a great deal in the Art Department. The Art Club has been recognized, and put on a firm basis through her efforts.

EDITH LONG, SewingState Normal, 1915-'17.Chicago University, 1919.*

Miss Long returned to us this year filled with enthusiasm in regard to her sewing and millinery. She has passed her enthusiasm and knowledge on, as is shown by the work her girls have turned out.

JOHN MUELLER, MathematicsLehigh University, B. S., 1914. M. S., 1915.*

Mr. Mueller has earned the undying gratitude of all the M. H. S. students by his successful coaching in all athletics. We hope to have him with us next year.

ELIZABETH RAY MUELLER,Indiana University, A. B., 1919.*

Mrs. Mueller came to us this year and has already proved her efficiency in Domestic Arts. She is popular among boys and "em" teachers of school as well as the girls. This has been proved by the fact that she has changed her name during the time she has been here.

DOROTHY NOYES,Physical TrainingChicago Normal School of Physical Education, 1917.*

Miss Noyes, through her exceptional work with the girls this year, enjoyed more popularity than ever (and that's going some), and the Girls' Athletic Vaudeville will be long remembered. In basketball and other athletic activities where the girls were concerned, Miss Noyes managed things very successfully.

MR. PARREANT, Orchestra

Mr. Parreant is our orchestra director. He has succeeded in building up a very good orchestra in our school. Several recitals have been given, which have proved the high standard that it has attained an enthusiastic booster and loyal supporter of all school activities. He has won the good will of the entire school.

CHARLES A. SEMLER, PrincipalEarlham University, A. B., '15.Chicago University, 1916-'17.*

The school was glad to welcome Mr. Semler's return, after two year's leave of absence. He has served as principal, and throughout the year he has been an enthusiastic booster and loyal supporter of all school activities. He has won the good will of the entire school.

MYRTLE SLOAN, Librarian

State Commission Library School, 1917.

Miss Sloan is a small but mighty person. Besides being a great school booster, for her size, she is very helpful to the students in finding library references.

L. S. SMITH, Science

Albion College, A. B., 1915.

University of Michigan, A. M., 1917.

Mr. Smith is one of our newcomers. He has greatly pleased us, wherever it is needed. He is an instructor in Science, and helps to direct the Science Association.

GLADYS SMITH,

University of Kansas, A. B., 1914.

Mrs. Smith has substituted for Miss Sleezer, and wherever we had need for her. The school certainly appreciated her kindness in helping us. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

JEANIE TERRY, Music

Institute of Normal methods of Applied Music, 1897.

Miss Terry is at the head of the music department, a position that she is very capable of filling. She is the director of the chorus, and has presented some very good entertainments before the school. She is well liked by all the students.

MILTON YAGER, Commercial

DePaw University, A. B., 1917.

Mr. Yager came to us this year to take charge of the Commercial Department. He has worked hard for the interest of that Department and hopes to see all his Commercial Students succeed.

CLARENCE A. WACKMAN,

Printing

Wisconsin State Normal, 1910, Midland Linotype School, 1911.

Mr. Wackman is our "printer" and he has proved to be very helpful. With his efficient knowledge of printing and other things, he has published the School Paper, the "Alltold", sponsored the Junior Class, and steered the "Miskodeed" through its perilous journey.

A. C. KIBBEY,

Through illness, Mr. Kibbey, who is in charge of our history department, was unable to have his picture taken for this publication. He goes to Shelbyville next year and M. H. S. certainly will miss his presence as they surely have since he has been confined to his home. A snapshot of Mr. Kibbey appears on Page 38.

Class Colors—Cardinal and Straw

THE four years just closing will be remembered as among the happiest in the lives of the Senior Class of 1920.

Our career as a class began one September day when we lost ourselves in the spacious halls of M. H. S., the greenest of Freshies trying in vain to find our class rooms. However, in a short time, we became used to the routine of High School life.

The Freshmen Party was our first important social event in M. H. S. We varied the usual procedure by giving a Freshmen Masquerade, a diversion welcomed by all. Our Sophomore Dance was equally successful. The Junior Prom, held at the Miami Club, was, of course, our most brilliant affair.

In our Sophomore year we presented the play "Aaron Boggs, Freshman" to a capacity house and the Junior Play "Her Husband's Wife" was very well received.

The Class of '20 has also been represented in athletics both football and basketball, in debating and oratory and in the High School Orchestra.

Now that our High School days are nearly completed, we can review with pleasure the events of our four years at M. H. S.

Far greater than in any other way have we developed in our manifestation of school and class spirit. From the usual disorganized first year, we have developed into a class whose unity shall remain unshaken for all time. We hope that the Class of '20 may be remembered as one upholding the principles of M. H. S. and that in some small way may be an inspiration to the coming classes, to whom we wish the greatest success in school life.

Senior Class Poem

It's our turn now. Four happy years
Within your walls we've spent
Old M. H. S. And now along
The Road of Life we're sent.

The Road of Life is long and rough;
Along it some men ride
While others walk. It lies with us
Our fortune to decide.

And you have helped us M. H. S.
Our years with you have shown
Just what each one is fitted for;
What is our work alone.

In years to come, fond memories
Of happy high school days
Will come to us—but now has come
The parting of the ways.

It's our turn—are we ready?
Class of '20, answer "Yes".
"Ever Onward" be our motto
When we leave you, M. H. S.

Class Colors--Old Rose and Silver

LITTLE did we know as we entered the halls of M. H. S. amidst the jeers of the Sophomores and upper classmen some three years ago, that our career, as the Class of Twenty-One, was to be one of the brightest careers of all the classes in M. H. S.

In our Freshmen year we were as all Freshmen are, scared to death and practically unheard of. We had little or no organization as a class and consequently could not astonish the other classes with any spectacular accomplishments. Our Freshmen party however was well received and altho it was not the best Freshmen party ever given, everyone was satisfied, so it didn't matter.

With one year of knowledge stored away in our heads, we started in our second year, first as all Sophomores do, by subduing the Freshies. After a while, when the monotony of study was resting rather heavily on our minds, we held a weiner roast at which nearly all the Sophomores were present. Still we had no organization besides a governing committee, and still we could not astonish the world with the good things we knew we possessed. We were however represented in Athletics, in Oratory, and in Debating.

But this year our big year, dawned as a new day, and we bloomed forth in all our splendor to show the world in general, and M. H. S. in particular that the Class of Twenty-One was alive. The first product of our well oiled machinery was the Halloween Dance which was one of the most enjoyable dances ever held in the Auditorium. Not to let this success in any way turn our heads, we began to absorb knowledge only as Juniors can. Then in February by way of diversion from our daily tasks the class put over the Valentine Dance. Our third achievement came in a dramatical way. And in "A Scrap of Paper" we surprised everyone, including ourselves. We were this year again well represented on the Football gridiron, on the Basketball floor, on the Baseball field, and in Debating and Oratory.

Our crowning efforts however have been toward this. THE MISKODEED. This book represents a great deal of hard work, but all that we ask of you, the loyal supporters of M. H. S. is to receive it in the spirit with which we present it to you. Do not judge it too harshly, for after all we are only beginners in the game of life, and perhaps we have not yet learned all the tricks of the trade. On the other hand we wish to thank sincerely all those who have worked and contributed toward the success of this book. Our class sponsors especially, we wish to thank, for without their aid it could never have been a success. We also wish to congratulate the Seniors on their graduation, and also a parting word to our classmates, it is this: another year, Class of Twenty-One, and the world is yours.

President SEWARD BOWERS
Vice-Pres. JOSEPHINE CHANDLER
Secretary FRANCIS WALTERS
Treasurer ELIZABETH DRESCH

IT was in the fall of '18 that "we", the class of '22, entered Mishawaka High School to take a part in making it one of the foremost High Schools of Northern Indiana.

Our class sponsors, while Freshmen, were Miss Beugnot; Miss Edingfield, and Mr. Shepler.

It was at the Freshmen Party that we were first able to show our friendship and active school spirit as a class. We were also one of the first classes of Mishawaka High School to adopt a French War Orphan.

As a Freshmen Class we were well represented in the Cadet Corps, basketball, and track.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we were very fortunate in having the above given officers to govern our class, and also in having Miss Beugnot, Mr. Mueller, and Mr. Smith as our class sponsors.

The biggest and most successful event of our history in Mishawaka High School, was the Sophomore Play which was given this year.

We also want to remind you of the fact that the Sophomores had a part in the making of the football, basketball, and baseball teams of this year.

Looking back over the time that we have spent in Mishawaka High School, we cannot but think it has been pleasantly and profitably spent.

And now as we look ahead we think of the many more undertakings and social affairs that we are to take part in, we hope to make our class record still better throughout the remaining years that we will spend in Mishawaka High School.

Freshman Class History

Treasurer MARINUS WILLETT

Class Colors—Dark Blue and Burnt Orange

UPON entering High School we experienced a mixture of sensations, as have all the preceding classes and those yet to come, but everyone was glad to be at last a student of M. H. S.

After considerable confusion, we were organized, and, due to the majority of new Freshies, practically the whole staff of officers was elected from their lot. This was not customary, and caused some disagreement.

We proved just as green as they made 'em, furnishing the usual amount of trouble for the faculty, and amusement for the upper classmen.

We gradually became accustomed to the routine, and, under the guidance of our patient sponsors, began doing things. We stood well in all the contests, which was difficult, due to the large class. We made ourselves known through our Freshman Party which, due to the originality shown and the way it was carried off, was declared by many the best yet. Both boys and girls have taken an interest in Athletics, and have already proven that they have some real stuff in them.

The class can improve themselves both physically and mentally and thus prove themselves a credit to M. H. S.

Those Were The Days

How strange, 'tis each generation
When approaching veneration
Looking back o'er days gone by
Should sigh and say with tear
dimmed eye

"Those were the days".

For years and years its been the same
Tho' life bring weariness or pain
We all gaze thru the closing door
Of time, and say, "They'll come
no more

Those happy days".

"No matter what the future brings
Pleasure or hope or wordly things
'Tis not the equal of the past
'Twill be discovered first or last
Those were the days".

'Tis true of school, 'tis true of life.
Tho they be full of pain and strife
Each thinks his time was best of all
That such good things are past recall
Those were the days.

As Seniors graduate and leave
On fortune's looms their lives to weave
With forward look and eager eye
They little think they'll raise the cry
Those were the days.

But human nature's all the same
It's been like this since men first came
Upon the world. As we lose youth
We all will learn this vital truth
Those were the days.

—Josephine Chandler.

Mishawaka's First Commencement

A LONG WAY from 1878 to 1920. Almost a half century. Then Mishawaka, a village of but a few thousand people, now a thriving city of near 17,000 inhabitants, famed throughout the world for its manufacturing industries.

Then but two school buildings, one an old white frame of four rooms standing where our beautiful Batell School, which is soon to be greatly increased in size and modernized, now stands. The other the old red brick presided over by Mr. Moran and corps of 12 teachers. This building then had but nine rooms, one being the High School Room with a class room, a cloak room and superintendent's office adjoining. Over the building was the large hall known as Whitson Hall named in honor of the oldest member of the School Board. Here for many years most of the large public gatherings of the village were held, and here was held the first commencement of Mishawaka High School. It was held in the afternoon. The teachers were told to assemble their classes at the regular time and then march in a body to the Hall where places would be assigned to them. Well do I remember that day, the march across the river the climbing of the long flights of stairs, the entrance into the hall. It seemed half a mile from the rear door to the front of the auditorium where seats had been reserved for our grade.

They were advantageous for seeing and I was charmed with everything. The stage so beautifully decorated, the music, and best of all, the two sweet girl graduates, not dressed in the simple style so becoming to the present day graduates but rather in silk dresses cut entrain, with short sleeves and long white kid gloves. Each in turn stepped in front and read a long essay, filled of course with beautiful thoughts. I remember of the superintendent's stepping behind a plant and saying in a stage whisper to one of the graduates, "Speak a little louder". I do not remember the subjects of the essays nor any of the beautiful thoughts presented, but the material side was so appealing to my childish mind that I decided then and there that if that meant graduating, Mishawaka Public School could count on me and I never forgot the resolve. In 1885 I passed out of our High School through the magic door Commencement into the bigger, broader school beyond, "The School of Life". There were eight girls in the class and all are living yet and will I know join me in extending to the Class of 1920 our congratulations and best wishes for future usefulness and prosperity. The following words of our class poem are as applicable to you "Class of 1920" as they are to us—Time Brings all Things to Pass—Our work in life has just begun, not ended as may seem. 'Tis true our school work may be done. Yet we've not time to stop and dream.

Before us lies a life of toil,
We all have work to do;
Let us from duty not recoil
But show a purpose true.

For some there's joy and happiness
In time that is to come,
For others pain and weariness
In work that's to be done.

For years we've been together here
All working hand in hand.
Our mutual joys and hopes and fears
Bind with a golden band.

But now the parting time has come,
Farewell to school and class,
The hours of gold will soon be gone,
"Time brings all things to pass."

The Alumni Association

THE Alumni Association has been reorganized for the purpose of uniting the classes which have been graduated, beginning with the Class of Eighteen Hundred Seventy Eight. The officers of the organization are:

President MARY EAGER
Vice-Pres. DOROTHY NOYES
Secretary CHARLOTTE BRESSLER
Treasurer FLORAN KELLY

The Alumni are planning an unusually brilliant reception for the Class of Twenty. The Class of Nineteen plans to maintain as long as possible its former Class Organization, and is planning a reunion to be held at Klinger Lake. In order to defray the expenses of the reunion the class presented a play entitled, "Just for Fun." The play was under the direction of Miss Anna Dobbins, former Class Sponsor.

From An '18 Member

AS an outsider, I have been watching the activities of the High School, and I have been pleased to see the good spirit existing there. Athletics have been particularly interesting, because once a fan, always a fan. The teams are to be congratulated upon having the backing of such a man as Mr. Semler, of whose good fellowship I have many pleasant memories.

HAROLD CRUM. '18.

From the Class of '19

"NOW our days in M. H. S. are over and the years before us have begun," thus runs our class song. But, though our High School years are over, we shall never forget our Alma Mater, while we are out in the world doing our share.

The time passed all too quickly, four happy, well-filled, profitable years. During that time we tried to uphold the ideals of M. H. S. and to make a name for the Class of '19, and now, that our ideals have been in part achieved, we find ourselves members of the Alumni Association and eager to help in any activity of M. H. S. in which our services may be needed. As a class, we have a permanent organization and held our first reunion at Christmas time. We are planning a second for the first week in August at Klinger Lake.

The many friendships we made in High School among the students and faculty members, we shall cherish throughout our lives.

In closing "19" sends greetings to the students, faculty and alumni of M. H. S.

PHANOR HOWLETT. '19.

Appreciation of M. H. S.

WHEN High School days become the subject, one is apt to become somewhat sentimental. Being neither a poet nor composer, I cannot adequately express my appreciation of High School. Words can not do it. For, immediately the mind becomes filled with many pleasant memories.

What is more pleasant to the alumnus than reminiscences of High School days? Those four years of pleasant association, when each of us had something in common with the other will never be forgotten. And besides giving to us friends, "by adoption tried" the school, through an able faculty, incessantly was helping us to build up character, courage and common-sense. It is no wonder then, as an alumnus of M. H. S., I am abounding in appreciation.

The "Class of '19", I am happy to say, showed their appreciation of the school by their constant unity of action in each of their many successful endeavors. In behalf of the class, I am permitted to say, that this appreciation will always be alive.

Without a doubt, each alumnus will always appreciate M. H. S. Speak to any graduate. Although, "business is good" or "college-life agrees with me", he will always conclude with an expression of appreciation of the days in good old M. H. S.

BENJAMIN FISER, '19.

The School Weekly

For the past two years the students have published a weekly paper known as the "ALLTOLD". The printing classes, under supervision of Mr. Wackman performed all the mechanical work, and under the management of two efficient staffs the paper has been one to be proud of. As a financial success, it has been better this year than ever before. The two staffs, one each semester, were elected by the student body, as follows:

1st Semester		2nd Semester
Editor-in-Chief,	ALEX CAMPBELL	ALEX CAMPBELL
Associate Editor,	RUBY SLOAN	MARY LAYER

The work of the Miskodeed Staff this year has been made especially difficult. Due to abnormal and almost unsurmountable conditions, for a time it appeared as though the publication of the Miskodeed would be impossible. However the dark clouds of failure have gradually rolled by and the Miskodeed Staff of the Class of '21 have finally accomplished their object in issuing this year's edition of the Miskodeed.

The Athletic Association

President WILLIAM MONTINE
Vice-Pres. DESSA AINLAY
Secretary EDWARD PHILION
Treasurer JOHN A. C. MUELLER

THE Athletic Association is the oldest organization in M. H. S. It is through this organization that financial means for various school activities such as athletic and oratorical contests are furnished. This year through the efforts of the Association Springbrook Park was secured for the home football games and the Armory for the basketball games, new equipment for both football and basketball was purchased.

In September of each year a membership contest between the boys and girls is conducted. The object of the contest is to enroll every student of M. H. S. as a member of the Athletic Association. The winning side is entertained by the losing side. This year the boys won the contest and the girls entertained at a party in the Auditorium. The membership this year included practically the whole student body.

Altogether the Athletic Association has had a very successful year and through out the year has given the proper financial support to our athletic and oratorical undertakings.

Coach Mueller

John A. C. Mueller is to be thanked by the student body of Mishawaka High School for his untiring and energetic coaching of all M. H. S. athletics. To him fell the none too easy task of building up a strong football and basketball team, but with the new spirit that pervaded M. H. S., and with both Coach and players working in unison, he has succeeded in developing teams that were a credit to the school.

Mr. Mueller, by his sincere efforts and success in producing winning teams has won the appreciation of the entire school and it is hoped that next year he will again guide the athletic destinies to a successful finish.

Football Review

AMID the bustle of the opening of school came the call of the new Coach for the football men. Only three men remained of the team of 1918 and before any practice was held, prospects did not seem to be very bright for a winning team. Mr. Mueller however seemed to have different ideas. He immediately started work with the unusually large number of candidates and proceeded to mould out and construct a smooth winning football machine. It was this group of inexperienced, but willing athletes that stepped upon the Football Field at Elkhart in the opening game on September 28th. It was this same group who after a battle of an hour stepped from the field having been victorious in their first attempt. It was a hard fought game, neither side scoring until the third quarter when M. H. S. scored her first touchdown of the season, winning the game by the score of 7-0.

The following Saturday the team, accompanied by the entire student body, journeyed to South Bend, and although the Benders expected an easy victory over us, the opposite was very nearly the result. The final outcome after a glorious attack and a well organized defense by both teams was a scoreless tie. This was the first time in the Athletic history of the two schools that South Bend failed to defeat Mishawaka on the Football field.

Our first home game was now at hand, Mr. Mueller secured the Springbrook Park field to play our home games and East Chicago was scheduled to be our opponent in this contest. This team came to Mishawaka with two previous victories and the intense determination to make it three. The game dragged along slowly, with Mishawaka men being injured frequently, and marked with ragged playing by both teams. In the third quarter however East Chicago executed a place kick from the twenty yard line and it appeared as if Mishawaka was to taste for the first time, defeat, but in the last four minutes of play the team took courage and with renewed efforts marched down the field to a touchdown and victory.

After this bit of glory we were due for a setback, not a defeat however. The team traveled to Michigan City. Here the game was started but was in the hands of such an incompetent referee that Coach Mueller stopped the game. It was protested and later declared no game. Now however we were due for a real setback. Elkhart having beaten South Bend came to play us a return game and to avenge their defeat at our hands earlier in the season. They succeeded and by the same score, 7-0.

On November 2nd, the team had an easy opponent in Warsaw and walked away with a 30-0 victory. It could and should have been more but, oh what's the use.

Although up to this time M. H. S. had been defeated only once she was to taste the bitter dregs twice more before the close of the season. At Benton Harbor, a new school on our schedule we had to be satisfied, not without a battle however, with the short end of a 19-6 score. Our last and worst defeat came at the hands of Emerson of Gary, when that team impressed rather forcibly upon the minds of the members of our team, the fact that they had been in a football game. The score at the final whistle was 49-0. This defeat however was not without its good results. There was at least one thing which the members of the team will remember for a long time, and that was the much over-worked phrase, "Punt-Formation, George Back".

On the whole the football season was successful. Our victories out-numbered our defeats, and after an absence of a year, football again came into its own and just now the prospects for the next year's team seem dazzling. It took much work to turn out such a team, but, without the hard work of Mr. Mueller and the whole-hearted support of the school it could never have been done.

MONTINE, Right End

"Bill" our captain was fighting all the time. At the end of the line he broke up many passes and attempted cross plays. His loss by graduation will be felt keenly.

LEON LAMBIOTTE, Center

Leon was easily the best center of any team played this year. He was always there with his one hand pass.

ED. LAMBIOTTE, Right Guard

He was not so fast but he was a real Gibraltar. He showed the qualities of a college player in the East Chicago game.

"Ted" was a fighter from start to finish. He got started in the Gary game and surprised everyone present, including himself.

GEHRING, Right Guard

In the middle of the season Chuck decided to come out and at once became a dependable pillar of strength in the line.

ARNDT, Left Tackle

With fifteen seconds to play Arndt carried the ball on a cross tackle play and staggered over the goal line to victory.

ART. PHILION, Left End

At Michigan City Art would surely have gotten a touchdown if he had not had to climb a hill of sand two feet deep. He is another man who has played his last game for M. H. S.

Our tractor-like Albert plowed right thru. He had half the South Bend team scared and aside from fussing up Elkhart's quarter back, and gently touching an East Chicago player with his shoe, his conduct was wonderful.

ED. PHILION, Right Tackle

It was next to impossible for an opposing player to get past him, and as far as passing the opposing players and breaking up plays he was always there.

BRADY, Full Back

He was a scrapper all the way and only once during the season was he forced to leave the game because of injuries.

Johnnie nearly got a touch down at Gary and was easily the fastest man on the team on his feet.

GAGE, Right Half

When he got started you couldn't stop him and as for getting started he could do that too.

EDGEELL, Full Back Sub.

Scott only got into the game two or three times but he showed everyone then that he knew something about the game.

SELTZER, Quarter Back

"Bromo" was full of pep and generalship at all stages of the game. John used his head for something else besides a hat rack as was brought out in the last fifteen minutes of the East Chicago game.

GRAVES, Quarter Back Sub.

Although a new man at the game and rather light he surely could wriggle through.

Review of the Basketball Season

IMMEDIATELY after the last football game at Gary a call was issued by Coach Mueller for Basketball men. In response there were between thirty and forty candidates out the first week. It was necessary to cut this squad down, so using all of last years remaining first and second team and a few promising candidates Coach Mueller built up a team which was one of the fastest teams ever representing M. H. S.

Prospects looked favorable from the beginning and with the wholehearted support of the school and the townspeople after a few weeks of strenuous practice the team was declared a winner and the first four teams to face M. H. S. had to be content with the short end of the score, the victims being in order, Elkhart, Notre Dame Preps, Niles and Nappanee. Next week, however the string of victories was interrupted by LaPorte and the week later the team succumbed to the strong Kendallville team, our team having been weakened by the temporary loss of L. Brady. Now approached the game that the students, team and the townspeople had been looking forward to, namely the South Bend-Mishawaka game. The crowd that packed the gym the night of the game was the largest that ever witnessed a basketball game in Mishawaka. From the first whistle to the last the outcome of the game was never in doubt, and the throng that accompanied the South Bend team left their "little suburb" sorely disappointed.

Seven days later Goshen fell before the onslaught of the well oiled Basket Ball machinery that represented Mishawaka. Niles then with a little luck barely succeeded in defeating our team, which had been weakened by its hard fight in the Goshen game, the night before. Plymouth then enabled L. Brady who was now playing center to make sixteen field baskets the highest number made by a High School player—Northern Indiana this year. The team for some mysterious reason now acquired the overtime habit and dropped two games in a row, one to Elkhart and the other to Nappanee.

On Feb. 7, the team was scheduled to play the Notre Dame Preps and the game was just about to begin when a pall of grief was cast over the players, students, faculty and the news was brought that Carl Garman, star forward on the team, had died of pneumonia. The game could not very well be cancelled and so with grief in their hearts and minds wandering the home boys managed to save the game in the last minute of play by one lone point.

The following week LaPorte visited us and departed victorious and happy while our defects number only eight, a very successful season indeed. But to whom in a large measure is the success due, to the members of the team, it is true, but also we cannot forget our Coach, Mr. Mueller. He has worked hard, thru victory and defeat he has stood by us and so to him a great share of the credit goes. But there has been another factor a group consisting of many this time. The students and the faculty have made possible the success of the team, and to them belongs a great share of the credit. Their attitude toward the team has ever been, "Thru victory or defeat we are always with you." That is the Basketball spirit of M. H. S.

Individual Basketball Mentions

BRADY played an excellent game at Center and scored more points in a single game than any high school player in this section of the state. He will lead next year's team to victory.

Graves was the fastest man on any team which played this year. V. could dribble and sidestep better than any player representing our school since the days of Fred Seifert.

Ivan Brady, although he played only half of the games showed the school that he was worthy to represent it. He filled Garman's place well.

Weiss was our floor guard and knew all the fine points of the game. He had an uncanny ability for a guard and frequently tipped the ball into the hoop.

Philon, was called upon often and entered the game as floor guard, and the way he tore up the team work of the opposing players, and got the ball was a delight to the rooters.

Coach Mueller was on the job every evening giving all that he had for the success of the team. He was a marvel with the ball, and tried to transform his sterling ability into the players. An important factor in the success of the team was the fighting spirit instilled into it by the coach.

Boys' Interclass

THIS year the Boys' Interclass tournament was played at the beginning of the season instead of the close as had been the custom heretofore.

Interest this year did not seem as great as in former years, but there were some good games and those who witnessed them found them not at all without interest.

The Juniors after a series of lively battles succeeded in winning the Tournament. An interesting feature was that squad men were ineligible for interclass play thus doing away with another old custom. Those on the winning Junior team were: Howlett, Gehring, Currier, Jones, Feldman, Rudduck, Seltzer.

The Second Team

THIS team, altho it does not get the glory that is showered upon the Varsity is none the less essential and works none the less hard. This year the games of the second team were not as uninteresting as they have been in the past, but on the other hand their game developed a lively bit of enthusiasm among the crowds that witnessed them.

No school can have a successful first team without a successful and cooperative second team. Our school had both.

Spring Athletics

ALTHOUGH during the last few years, our athletes have looked forward to Track, at this time of the year, "The old order changeth," as Tennyson said, "yielding place to new", so instead of track we have revived in M. H. S. the national game.

After considering Track and Football as spring sports it was decided to reject both and to take up baseball. In response to Coach Mueller's call for tryouts came a wealth of future "Ty Cobbs" and "Babe Ruth's", and with this promising material, it was not long before a well organized, but perhaps inexperienced team, was representing M. H. S. on the diamond.

Games were scheduled with Niles, Edwardsburg, Goshen, Notre Dame Preps and Elkhart, but the lack of suitable weather made it impossible for the team to practice, as it should. As the Miskodeed goes to press the team has played two games, and unfortunately has had to be satisfied with the short end of the score in both contests.

In the opening game at Niles both teams played a poor game in the field, but was strong at the bat. M. H. S. lost the score being 16-11. At Edwardsburg, a few days later, another defeat was in store for us. Although Edwardsburg received only two hits it was enough to win by the score of 2-1.

Although this may not seem like a very brilliant beginning the members of the team are not disheartened. They will profit by the mistakes they made in the first two games, and, given the proper support, will go forth and fight with the spirit and punch that is so characteristic of our school.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION PARTY

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, was the opening of the social season in M. H. S. Unlike former Athletic Association contests the outcome was a tie, and with the efforts of both the boys and girls every one had a doubly good time. A special stunt was staged by the Senior girls in the form of a burlesque, "The Sweet Alysum Club", and later, dancing was enjoyed by many.

ELKHART GAME DANCE

It was a disappointed looking bunch that wound up at school after seeing the Elkhart game, Saturday, October 25, but Mr. Hopkins soon made them feel like new and the usual crowd filled the floor.

JUNIOR DANCE

The Junior class staged a great surprise in the shape of a truly wonderful dance held in the High School Auditorium on the evening of October the twenty-ninth. We were looking for a good time but in reality the dance far exceeded our expectations. The class showed unusual originality and was congratulated on having given one of the best dances in the history of the M. H. S. The room had the appearance of a moonlit cornfield, haunted by witches, black cats, and spirits of Hallowe'en.

FRESHMEN PARTY

The class of '23 distinguished itself on Friday evening, November 14. They entertained the upper classmen with a novel entertainment and dance. A few of the first year people gave an original short act, "The Moving Picture Show", and after a reading by Evelyn Fonda, dancing continued until late. During the evening, novelty caps, and lavender and white chrysanthemums were given. And to wind up the refreshments were served in the lower halls.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE

Joe Artis' Orchestra furnished the music for this enjoyable dance. Midnight marked the climax of fun when the crowd became entangled in gay colored streamers, and deluged with confetti. The New Year came in with an accompaniment of mirth and gayety.

GOSHEN GAME DANCE

The dance after the game (Jan. 16) was a dance of victory. Everyone was happy because of the splendid showing of the team, and expressed their elation by dancing. Although very few of the Goshen rooters stayed, the few that did seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

JUNIOR DANCE

The Juniors, on the evening of February 14, held a Valentine's dance. The King and Queen of Hearts lead the Grand March and waltzed through the crowd all of the evening. The room was decorated with various sized hearts and cupids armed with darts. Refreshments were served at side booths. There were two feature dances; one a glowworm dance, the other a heart-and-dart dance. The music was furnished by the Joe Artis orchestra.

HISTORY CLUB DANCE

February 26 was the date of the Washington Dance given by the History Club. It was unique throughout. The guests armed themselves with programs in the shape of hatchets, took a trip through the "Den of Misery", visited the Fortune Teller, and were entertained by some wee ladies and gentlemen in colonial costume who did a minuet in graceful and stately manner.

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

The Seniors showed their Irish when they chose the date of March 17 for their dance. Green punch and the Harlequin Club Orchestra were memorable features of the occasion.

Board of Control

Board of Control

THE Board of Control was organized February 11, 1920 for the purpose of controlling and directing all extra school activities. The need for some sort of a central body to control all outside activities has long been felt and it was to fulfill this need that the Board was created. It is composed of students and faculty and every opportunity is given the student body to express their desires and opinions through this body. Each class is represented by two students and a faculty member elected by the class at stated times. The Principal of the School is President of the Board. All members hold office for one year but it is so arranged that the terms of all the members do not expire at the same time. Freshmen are not represented until the second semester.

All athletics, social affairs, clubs, societies and classes come under the immediate control of this Board. Each of these organizations must keep a copy of its constitution and by-laws on file with the Secretary of the Board and must follow any rules and regulations of the Board. The social calendar is kept by the Board and no social event, play, contest, etc. may be held without its sanction. Expenditures of more than $10 must be sanctioned by the Board. At stated intervals the accounts of all clubs, classes, etc., are audited by the Board. Meetings are held every Tuesday evening at four o'clock. It is not the purpose of this organization to restrict activities, but to give a wise and intelligent supervision to them in which students may have a voice. The members and officers are as follows:

The Boosters' Club

THE Booster's Club was introduced into M. H. S. by Mr. Legg and has been re-organized every year since 1916. Its membership is composed of representatives of the various classes and faculty and includes the Principal, Athletic Coach, and Yell Leader as honorary members.

During football season they boosted all the games and honored the men by a banquet in the Mishawaka Hotel at the close of the season.

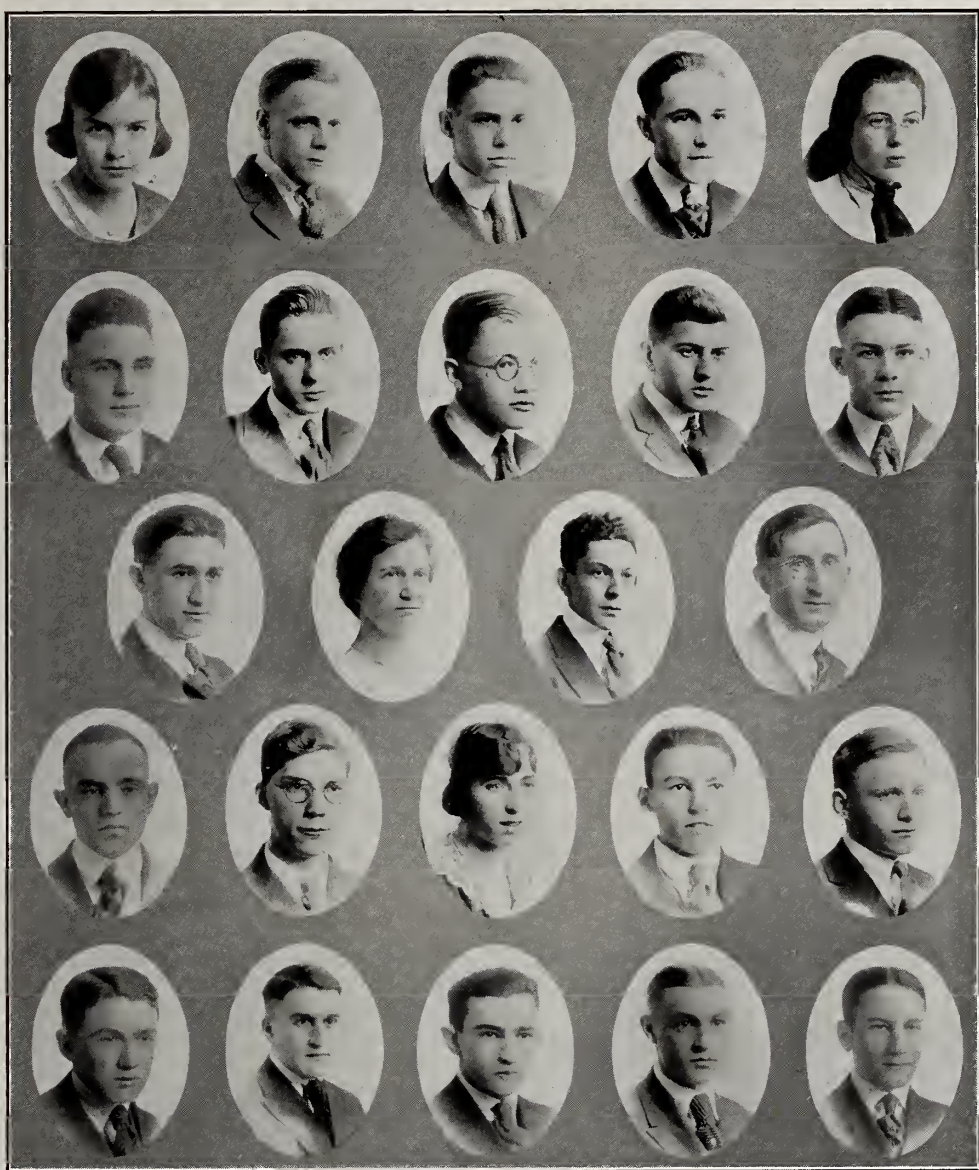

This organization was also instrumental in giving a number of dances immediately following the basket ball games.

This, and more too, is the work of our Boosters' Club and we can truthfully say that it is one of the most essential organizations in Mishawaka High School.

The Boosters' Club

Science Club

THE SCIENCE CLUB of Mishawaka High School was organized several years ago and is now one of the well-established clubs of the school. The purpose of the club is to encourage original work by the members and the equipment of the laboratories is used to make this possible.

During the year each member of the club is given an opportunity to demonstrate and discuss some project in which he is interested. During the present year the following subjects were discussed and studied. The wireless instrument was set up and demonstrated by members of the club. An aeroplane built by a member was exhibited and the recent developments in the art of flying were discussed. Some of the wonders of superheated steam were shown and practical applications suggested. The principles of the gas engine were illustrated by experiment and this was followed by a discussion of gas engines. In this way students are helped to do original work and are also kept in touch with many of the recent developments of science.

History Club

THE History Club is the oldest organization in school and the most successful. In former years the membership had been limited to Seniors only and others by note.

The Board of Control rules have changed this and anyone in High School may now belong.

A great number of under classmen have taken advantage of this opportunity and it now has the largest membership in school.

Some of the important activities of the History Club this year was the Dr. Russel Conway lecture and the History Club Dance.

The Club also gave a series of moving pictures in the High School Auditorium showing the life of Abraham Lincoln.

All of these affairs were successful.

THE Commercial Club was organized three years ago for the purpose of studying and discussing commercial problems. The meetings have been both interesting and educational. On certain occasions it was possible to secure speakers from the business world to give a talk on their actual business problems.

The social hour, following the program was enjoyed by all. The membership of the club for the past semester numbers fifty-five.

Le Cercle Francais

THE Language Department in the Mishawaka High School created a French Club under the auspices of the French teacher, Miss Beugnot. Membership in the club was granted to those pupils taking French who obtained a grade of eighty-five or above and expressed a desire to belong. The meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month at which programs are presented. The purpose of the club is to promote the interest of pupils in the French language, customs and country.

At the second meeting several new members were initiated, a program of lantern slides showing life in France was given, and talks given on life in different parts of France.

At another meeting a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed after a brief business meeting. During the hour several games in French, all of which tends to increase the interest in the French Department.

The Latin Club

THE LATIN DEPARTMENT of the Mishawaka High School supports a live Latin Club. Membership in this organization is open to all pupils interested in the subject. Meetings are held the first Friday in each month and the dues are twenty-five cents each semester. The purpose of the Club is to promote interest in the study of the history, life and customs of Ancient Rome and to provide a background for the class room work.

During the year, the following programmes have been given: "Professions and Trades Among the Romans;" "Slavery in Rome;" "Letter Writing;" and "Ancient Romans of Fane." At one meeting lantern slides were shown and at the last meeting of the year a playlet, depicting the life of a Roman boy from birth to manhood was given.

Last October the Club gave a party in honor of the Beginning Caesar class. The ghosts of Caesar and Cicero were present on this occasion and gave worthy advice to the club.

THE ART CLUB was organized two years ago for the purpose of giving a broader and more intelligent conception of Art in its broadest sense.

During the last year the Art Club has been studying the Art in the different countries as Egypt, Assyria, Greece, Italy, France, England, etc., from a historical standpoint showing the influences of the different peoples upon later generations, and the development and growth thru the ages of architecture, sculpture, painting, dress, furniture, etc.

There are about forty members of the club. We wish to have a larger membership next year, because Art is one of the, if not the most, practical subject in the High School curriculum. We believe all students would gain much by belonging to this club.

The Girls' Athletic League

President, EDITH BAUERLEIN

Vice-Pres., ESTHER VINSON

Sec.-Treas., ALBURTA BUSHMAN

FIVE years ago an Athletic Association for girls under the name of "Girls' Athletic League", was organized. Under this organization the girls' basket ball games have been conducted and enthusiasm for all athletics encouraged. The association awards sweaters, M's and numerals to all girls gaining the required number of points. Membership is acquired by making a basket ball team and playing in five games.

Much credit for the success of the Girls' Athletic League is due to Miss Noyes who worked faithfully in reorganizing the League.

High School Orchestra

UNDER the able direction of Professor Parreant our High School Orchestra has developed into a very efficient group of musicians, and upon various occasions have demonstrated their ability to both the student body and the general public. This is the second year under Mr. Parreant's direction, and needless to say, it will be, we hope, a permanent one. The personnel is as follows: Mr. Parreant, director; Marie Anderson, piano; Edmund Lambiotte, cornet; Warren Niles, and Ernst Gilman, clarinets; Joseph Bultinck and Edith Bauerlein, violins; Leon Lambiotte, Winfield Seaman and Martha Tracy, saxaphones; Harris Hambright, drums.

The English Club

THE newest organization formed to fulfill some of the needs of the High School is the English Club. The purpose of this organization is to further the interests of our mother-tongue in ways not provided for in the High School Curriculum. One hour programs were given once a month, consisting of one-act plays, readings and music.

The club chose for its object this year to provide new stage equipment and from their funds have financed a new gray-green modern interior panel setting and a charming exterior spring scene, painted by the art department. In addition they have equipped the school with a complete make-up outfit for dramatics and a splendid file of some fifty manuscript readings and orations for club and contest work. The club has also met financially any incidental emergencies not otherwise provided for, connected with the various stage productions and school contests.

The programs for the second semester have been given by classes in rotation. February, the Sophomores presented an excellent dramatization of scenes from Ivanhoe and the morality play, "Every Student". The Seniors in the April program gave "The Revolt", a boarding school comedy by Ellis Parker Butler. The April program by the Freshmen under the direction of Miss Hudelson was postponed because of conflict with other school activities. For the May program the Juniors chose "A Bunch of Roses", under the direction of Miss Grantham.

By the furthering of wholesome plays the club hopes to help establish a permanent place for dramatics in the High School. With new plans for the future and with gratitude for the hearty response to this new organization the English Club wishes you all a happy vacation.

High School Quartette

Miss Grantham here demonstrated her ability as a vocal teacher, when she organized two very good quartettes, one of mixed and the other chosen from the male student vocalists. Both of these organizations deserve special mention for the faithful way in which they practice, and also the pleasing way in which they responded to various requests to help in assemblies, etc.

The mixed quartette was composed of the following students: Soprano, Katherine Wier; alto, Alburta Bushman; tenor, Glen Kline; bass, James Chase.

The male quartette had for its membership the following: First tenor, Glen Kline; second tenor, Leon Lambiotte; first bass, Kenneth Schmidt; second bass, James Chase.

Elizabeth Jontz acted in the capacity of accompanist, much to every one's satisfaction.

The Junior Class Play

THE PLAY, "A Scrap of Paper", given by the Junior Class, Friday evening, April 16, was a decided success. The audience was immensely pleased and felt that they were getting all that they paid for. The Junior Class is also very proud of itself, not only that the audience was pleased, but also for the fact that nearly every seat in the auditorium was taken.

Great credit is due Miss Day and Miss Hudelson as a great amount of the work toward making the play a success was through their untiring efforts.

The cast was as follows:

Prosper Couramont	ALEX. CAMPBELL
Baron de la Glaciere	CHARLES GEHRING
Brismouche (landed proprietor and naturalist)	WALTER WEIKAMP
Anatole (his ward)	RICHARD ZELLERS
Baptiste (servant)	DELNO HOWLETT
Louise de la Glaciere	GLENOLA DOREMYER
Mlle. Suzanne de Ruseville (her cousin)	RUTH ROGGMANN
Mathilde (sister to Louise )	ALICE BAKER
Mlle. Zenobie (sister to Brismouche )	BERNADETTA EPERT
Mme. Dupont (housekeeper)	BEATRICE ORR
Pauline (maid)	BERNICE ROBBINS

The Sophomore Play

"PURPLE and Fine Linen", the Sophomore Class play, was presented in the auditorium on Friday evening, April 30, before a large and enthusiastic audience, which followed the play with great interest step by step.

One feature of the play other than the splendid acting of the individuals, was the special scenery and settings for the production. The work on the interiors and drops was done under the able direction of Miss Lean, our art teacher and some of her pupils, and by H. M. Kabel, manual training teacher. Many compliments were paid both these workers.

The costuming of the play added greatly to the piece, even though they were a little late in arriving. These costumes certainly portrayed Puritan days, and helped the various actors to act their parts more genuinely.

The play was produced under the able direction of Miss Beugnot, the French teacher and Sophomore sponsor, and Miss Day, head of the English department. Their excellent dramatic coaching was much in evidence and that they did no small amount of work was evidenced by the work of the individual actors.

The cast of characters was as follows:

John Belden , minister 'in the way of tryall' to Hatfield	EDGAR LEHR
David Sylvester , young soldier in love with Experience	HAROLD KENNEDY
Deacon Epaphrus Small , a Puritan elder	SEWARD BOWER
Elkanah Parsons , Clerk of the Court	FRANCIS WALTERS
Tom Dearborn	FLOYD GYGI
Magistrate	ORRIS HILER
Simeon Meekins , acting as lawyer for the prosecution	HAROLD ELLSASSER
Goodwife Dearborn , widow of Hatfield	MARGARET BAER
Betty , her daughter	MINNY YAWKEY
Goodwife Parsons , of Northampton	JOSEPHINE CHANDLER
Experience , her daughter	EMILY FINCH
Lucie , a slave	IDA PROTHERO

Senior Class Play

The Class of 1920 presents for the annual Senior play "Nothing but the Truth" an unpublished comedy by J. H. Montgomery. It is a modern American business play first presented in 1916. The situation is based upon the wager of a young man that he can tell the truth for twenty-four hours. The Senior Class and the school are to be congratulated on their choice of play.

"The Entanglements of a Bashful Professor"

"OH BOYS, BOYS! put it back in the cage," was the Professor's agonized cry. Prof. Horatio Allenby, the science instructor of Hillcrest High School, was undergoing the daily tortures inflicted upon him, by his mischief loving students. Just at present, the Zoology class, under the supervision of Ted Greene, was putting the Professor's pet beetle through interesting maneuvers.

Not only was Mr. Allenby tortured in school, but he had other troubles. One which caused him many heartaches was Miss Samantha Greene, a highly respected spinster of the town, and who held the high regards of many of the citizens including Mr. Allenby. The Professor was very bashful, and when in the lady's presence, he would blush and stammer, and withdraw with his mission unfulfilled.

Now the Professor had several bad habits. One was his carelessness. He had a memorandum, in which he recorded all of his thoughts and ambitions. He kept this lying on the top of his desk. Of course the book was examined each day, by his industrious students.

Imagine their surprise, upon finding one day, the following passage: "I will have the ring in my pocket, and then I will ask her to get something out of my pocket, and then—" but here his inspiration must have ended. But it was quite enough for the conspirators.

Ted with his fellowmen soon conceived a plan. Upon examining the Professor's coat, hanging in the assembly, they discovered the little box containing the ring. With a great deal of chuckling and whispering, the box was removed, and a parcel, somewhat similar in shape and size was put in its place.

That evening as Mr. Allenby was on his way to beard the lion's den, he might have seen boys bearing resemblance, to those of his Zoology class, following him. But he was absorbed in deep thought, trying to plan an opening conversation with Miss Greene.

It was a warm June evening and Samantha proposed sitting on the veranda. A noise, curiously resembling a chuckle, sounded from the hedge near the veranda. "Er--er, what was that," faltered Mr. Allenby, "Nothing, nothing at all," said the spinster soothingly. She evidently realized the nervous strain that he was laboring under.

What had he planned to say? "I believe we are going to have a season of nice weather," he ventured. "Yes, very nice," conceded Samantha. A few minutes of silence. Then—"I'm afraid it's going to rain tomorrow," he gasped, after a speculative glance at the clear sky.

It was only after Miss Greene's laugh, that he realized the blunder that he had made. Horrors! What should he do? Then clearing his throat he plunged into the fray. "Er--There's something in my pocket for you," he blurted desperately.

"Oh, how nice," said Samantha, sighing in rapture. Cautiously she slipped her hand, into the pocket that he assigned. He drew a long breath. Had she found it? Then—Samantha, shrieking, jerked her hand out of his pocket.

By the moonlight, he saw his beetle clinging to her fingers. "How dare you play such a joke on me," cried Samantha indignantly. With another shriek, she flung the beetle out on the lawn. "Why, Samantha, that's my prize beetle." And with a bound, he was on the ground looking for it.

"That's right," Samantha stormed. "Think about your old bug, before myself. You need never speak to me again." And she flounced into the room slamming the door. Mr. Allenby began to explain, but he found he was talking to empty space. After an unsuccessful search for his beetle, he disconsolately wended his way homeward.

The conspirators, however, were not yet satisfied. The next day Ted placed the following note upon the Professor's desk. Dear Mr. Allenby—I am sorry that I spoke so hastily and I will be glad to see you at any time.

The same day, Ted visited his aunt Samantha. After a few minutes of conversation, he asked with a grin, "You were bit last night, weren't you?"

Samantha turned upon him in amazement. "Why Ted, how did you know that? No one knows about it, except Mary, and I can trust her. I am sure that Mr. Allenby said nothing about it." Ted flushed with embarrassment. He realized that he had made a bad slip. The maid was called in, and proved her innocence.

Ted recalled an important meeting that he must attend. He left hastily, in great confusion, with a muttered good-bye, to which his aunt did not respond. She was wearing an extremely thoughtful look, and was saying, "So Ted knows about the affair. I might have known that he would."

In the meanwhile, Mr. Allenby was reading the note, he supposed to be from Samantha. Needless to say, he rushed to her home immediately. To his impatient ring, the Irish maid, Mary, answered. "Indade, and you're the man that tried to poison my mistress, aren't you?"

Poor Mr. Allenby. What a reception. "But I-I have a note from her, and,"—Just then Samantha's voice was heard, "Oh Mary, is it Mr. Allenby? It's all right. I sent for him."

The following day the Professor's Zoology class, read of his engagement. During the same day, he called Ted to him. The blushing culprit was unprepared for what followed. "Young man," the Professor said, with a twinkle in his eye, "I wish to thank you, for the great help you gave me in my matrimonial affairs." Strange to say Ted, known for his ready wit could find no reply.

A Tale Without a Name

STANLEY JAMES was lonesome. Not only did he feel so, but any fairly observant person could tell it at a glance. He knew not a soul in the city and had come to the reception of alumni from his alma mater, only to meet with strangers.

Finally, a kind hearted old gentleman claimed him and carried him off to meet some of our delightful young ladies, sir. When Stanley saw the first young lady he stopped short. As she looked up at a word from his benefactor he saw surprise in her eyes. She was the sister of his former roommate, Robert Brown. Luckily, good old Bob had a habit of adorning his surroundings, both at home and at school, with pictures of his family and friends. It made mutual recognition possible at this time.

Stanley was lonesome no more that evening. Before it was over he had secured an invitation to call at the Browns'.

The next morning any passerby might have seen Stanley James sitting forlornly on a bench in the park. He had finally overcome the temptation to call that very night but he was not enjoying his victory.

The next evening found him on his way to the home of the Browns—1610 Bergan Street, that was the address. The house was a cold imposing looking affair, not at all the kind he had imagined Bob and his sister Ellen would live in.

He walked up the steps and rang the bell, then pulled a card from his pocket to make sure of the address—Jumping Josephat, it was 10161. At that moment the door opened and he was confronted by the most "superior" looking individual he had ever seen.

"Is-is Mr. Thomas in? Mr. Grendle Thomas?" He stammered.

"Certainly. He has been expecting you. Come in and I will see if he is ready," and Stanley found himself inside though how he got there he did not know. He cleared his throat while the superior individual, evidently the housekeeper, was sending a maid for Mr. Thomas. When the lady turned to him his courage failed, and he allowed himself to be led into the library.

Here, for the first time he realized fully his predicament, but Dame Superiority had retired to a desk in a room intervening, and he had not the courage. How had he ever happend to light on the name Grendle? The fates were certainly against him.

Stanley glanced up and saw the rows of books lining the walls, and an inspiration seized him. At that moment a tall gray-haired man appeared in the end of the room and Stanley hurried forward to carry out his plan. He introduced himself as assistant to a prominent book-seller and proceeded to attempt to sell Mr. Thomas a first edition of an old novel.

He named a price which he knew no sane man would pay and then walked to the opposite end of the room to await a refusal, when he could depart gracefully.

On a shelf were several photographs, and Stanley turned to these to hide his rapidly increasing embarrassment. He stared in amazement. There lay a picture of his own father. He picked up the picture and turned to meet the amused gaze of Mr. Thomas.

"I will forgive you this time because you are Dick James's son, but don't let it happen again. What is your excuse young man?" he said.

Stanley explained and then looked the question he dared not ask. Mr. Thomas finally took pity on him.

"Your father and I were old friends," he said, "and I recognized you because of a picture he showed me recently. It happens that a week ago I bought the book which you have been trying to sell me."

Then Stanley realized that he had heard his father mention Grenville Thomas on several occasions. He had read of the sale of the book. He had sub-consciously remembered the names and spoken them in his predicament.

"I know that you have been detained long enough tonight," said Mr. Thomas, "Come to dinner tomorrow evening and don't try to sell me one of my own books."

Then Stanley left for 1016 Bergan Street.

"The Window Club"

WE were sitting along the south side of the High School, seven of us, one Sunday afternoon basking in the sunshine. It was one of those April days when the sun shines so warm and cheerfully that everyone is deceived into believing that we will have Spring at last, and then it snows next day.

"It's funny", said Bill, "That you fellows skip school all week and then want to hang around all Sunday; come on Pat let's go home."

"Forget it," said Pat, who didn't like Bill's reference to skipping school. "I don't want to go home any sooner than I have to, because I am tired of trying to explain to father why he received fourteen written absence excuses signed with his name from Mr. Semler, the other day when he hasn't written one this Semester. Fathers are unreasonable things. Besides, over there comes Hank just from the Navy, we'll have him tell of his experiences."

Hank strolled up and took a seat in one of the windows, lit a cigarette with an experienced air and said, "It sure is fine to be back to the old school again, and to see the old bunch".

"Aren't you coming back to school next year, Hank?" I inquired.

"No I should say not," said Hank with a superior look, "I'm a Grad-u-ate."

"Oh well," said Bill, imitating Hank's grand air, and dignified pose, "I'm a Quit-u-ate."

"That's nothing," said Pat, "If things don't clear up pretty soon I'll be a Can-u-ate."

After we had got Hank in good humor again and asked him about his experiences, he finally said, "Well fellows, my greatest experience while in the Navy, was my friend Hi Jensen. Hi was certainly a good sport and a true friend but he was a dope fiend."

"Not many of the fellows knew it because dope fiends don't act like they do in the movies and on the stage unless they are very far gone or nearly dead from it. One dope fiend can always tell another and Hi told me how they do it. If you stare at one and look him straight in the eye, he will look away and get restless. Some of them use a needle and they will rub the back of their hand or arm. Some of them "hit the pipe" and some chew it or snuff it. The fellows that snuff it will rub the side of their noses when they are excited or when they are under the influence of the dope. Hi came from the state of Minnesota. When he was a kid he had been a Western Union boy in some large city in that state and he had to go into these opium dens and that was where he acquired the habit."

"We were on the Battleship 'Missouri' and were stationed at New York most of the time. Whenever we got shore leave, we would go to Long Island. Hi knew every Hop joint on the place. I would go with him just to see the sights and to take him to the ship if he got helpless. I certainly saw some. Pretty girls and society women sitting in chairs in little booths or lying on couches either smoking or asleep. Some of them were covered with costly jewels but they were never stolen. The only time a hop fiend will steal is when he can't get dope and hasn't any money. When he is under the influence he thinks he owns the world."

"Finally the police closed the shops on Long Island and New York and Hi couldn't get any dope. He nearly went crazy. One night he tried to break into the medical stores on board ship to get the cocaine they used for the Sick Bay, and got caught. He got sixty days in the brig for that. One day after he got out we were up on deck cleaning up, washing our clothes and getting ready for inspection. Hi was going to shave and he said to me, "Say Pal, lend me your straight edge razor, will you? I've got a safety but I don't like it." I gave him my razor and Hi got a clean towel, lathered his face and all of a sudden he cut his throat kinda groaned and fell to the deck. The doctor hurried up but couldn't do anything for him."

"Doc, am I going to die?" "Yes I guess so," replied the doctor, he murmured "Well I'm glad."

"Hi died that night and I wrote his mother up in Minnesota. Poor Hi; it all seems like a dream now." All of us sat there in the windows silent for a while until Bill suddenly said, "Say Pat, let's go home," and the bunch silently broke up and started home. Scott A. Edgell, '20.

A Plaintive Ballad

Give ear my friend and hearken to this most pathetic tale

'Tis of a humble millionaire, an unassuming male.

His name was Artie Fishal. He always was polite

His handkerchiefs were always clean, his clothes were always right.

He didn't swear—he didn't smoke—to drink there was no chance

And to crown his list of virtues, he could not divinely dance.

Now Artie loved a maiden who was enchanting fair,

Her complexion was quite natural. She never crimped her hair.

She could play the piano, and sing quite sweetly too.

While from a new French teacher she had learned to "parley-vous?"

Now although Artie loved her, he felt a sort a shame.

In asking her to marry him and shed her maiden name.

He felt to far beneath her, his fortune was so small

Compared to what her father made, why, he had none at all.

The lady of his heart had lived in utmost luxury.

And he had just a town house and a country house, you see.

So as he couldn't keep her in the style her father had

He saw that he must give her up. "Alas" you say, how sad.

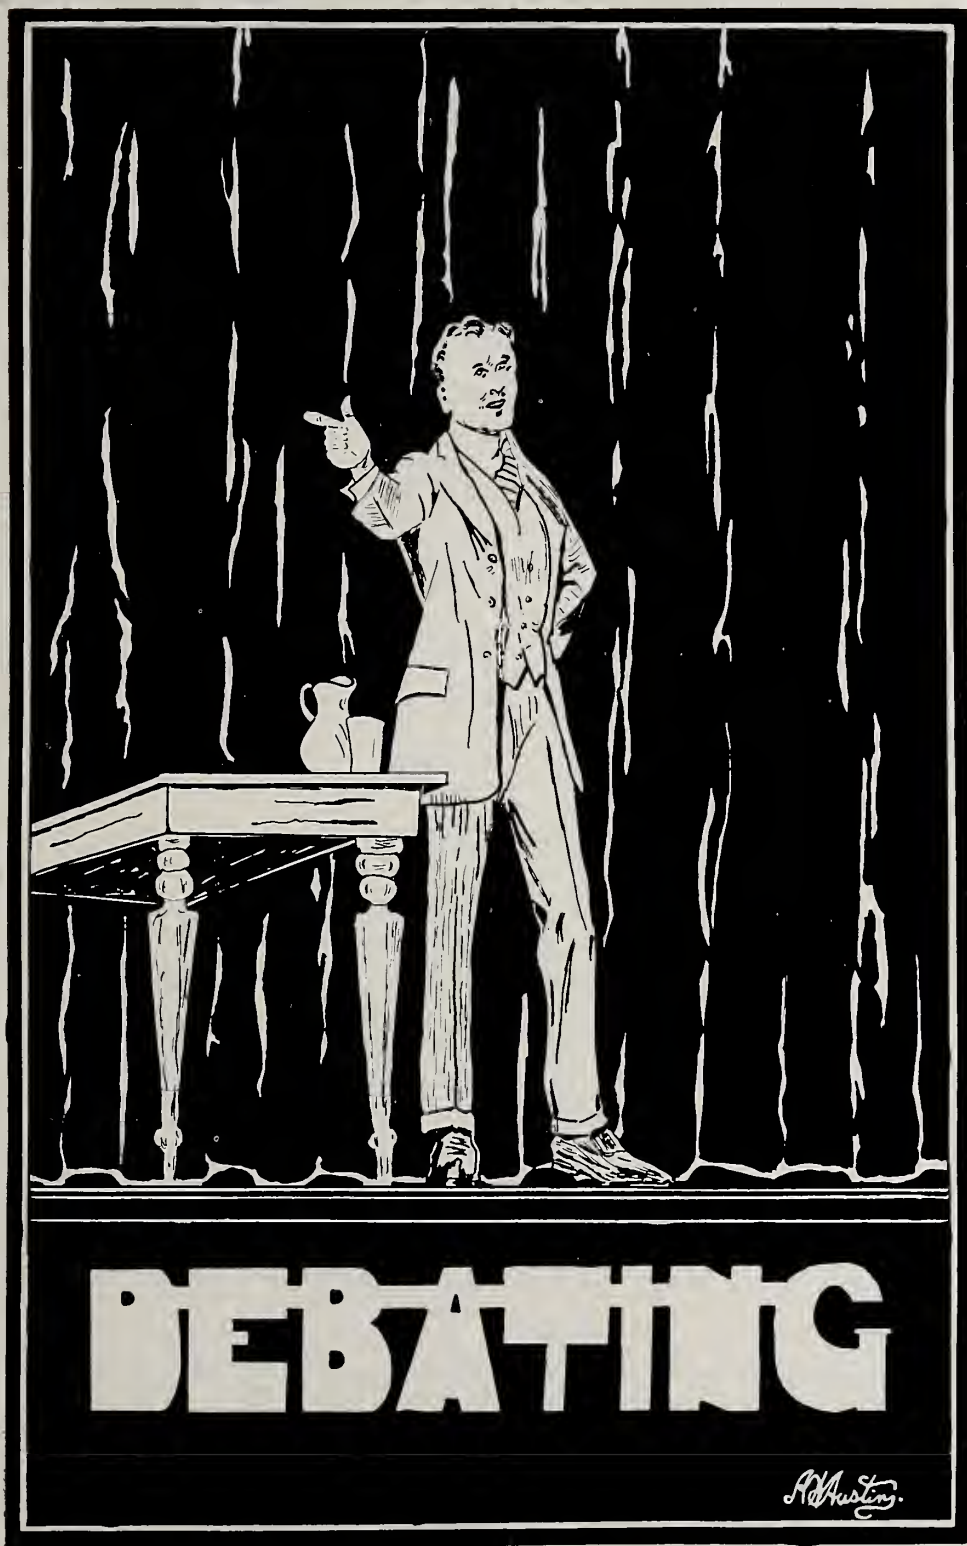

Can't these two loving hearts unite? Nay, 'twas not so to be

And this is where the sad part of my tale comes in, you see.

Her pa said if she married beneath her he would slay 'er.

And Art was just a millionaire, her father—a bricklayer. — Dorothy Young '20.

Oratory and Debating

MISHAWAKA HIGH SCHOOL participated in five inter-scholastic contests during the year 1919-20. In all of these the school has been ably represented and has made its usual creditable showing.

The subject of the annual South Bend debate for 1920 was, "Resolved that labor should be represented in industry." The affirmative was debated at Mishawaka, by Ed Philion, Isadore Feldman and Mary Layer; the negative at South Bend, by Ralph Jones, Harold Holderman, and Elizabeth Dresch. South Bend won the decision at both ends of the event.

The schedule of the Pentagonal League for March 19, was the negative at home with Elkhart and the affirmative at LaPorte. On March 24, the affirmative met Plymouth at home and the negative traveled to Michigan City. The only "bacon" the debaters were able to gather was a unanimous decision from Elkhart.

Mishawaka teams were composed of boys with girl alternates. The negative team was composed of Ralph Jones, Isadore Feldman, and Ed Philion, with Mary Russell alternate. The affirmative was Arno McGowan, Harold Holderman, and Seward Bower, with Bernadetta Epert alternate. The teams showed fine sportsmanship and made a very favorable impression in all the debates.

In the State Discussion League Ralph Jones was our representative in the county contest which event was won by South Bend on a very narrow margin.

The Northern Indiana local preliminary contest was held in the Auditorium, May 4 and 5. Nine boys very ably contested for our representation to Elkhart, in Oratory, Arthur Philion, Harold Kennedy, Francis Walters, Isadore Feldman, Alex Campbell, Ralph Jones, Curtis Johnson, Leo Grezsk, and V. J. Roy. Ralph Jones was chosen by the judges, Mr. Semler, Mr. Mueller and Mr. Smith.

The girls' reading contest was participated in by Agnes Poole, Grace Merrit, Caroline Immel, Beatrice Orr, Elizabeth Anderson, and Mary K. Russell. Beatrice Orr was selected for the district contestant by Mr. Semler, Mrs. Mueller and Miss Kelly.

On May 14, five students represented Mishawaka High School in the Lake Forest Contest at Lake Forest, Illinois, in sight reading, letter writing, and extemporaneous speaking.

JOKES

"Rosy cheeks often fade at the drinking fountain."

"Early to bed and early to rise.
But you don't meet any regular guys."

"Helen has a powder puff,
It surely is a beauty.
And everytime her nose gets red,
The puff will do its duty."

Little Bill Leslie sat in a corner,
Dreaming of A's and B's,
He picked up his card and looked very hard
And gazed upon four big D's.

A question in a zoology test was "Name four different kinds of sheep."

A Freshie wrote, "The four kinds of sheep are white sheep, black sheep, Mary's little lamb, and the hydraulic ram."

ENCORE

"What would happen if the cosmetic factories went on a strike."

Teacher. "What disadvantages did George Washington have to overcome in being President."

Student. "Not being able to tell lies."

Bill Leslie. "So this is Medieval history? What about it is there any thing evil?"

Alex Campbell is so fast he can turn out the light and be in bed before the room is dark.

Do you remember when pie disappeared?
Mildred Sudlow tried to ride a bicycle three sizes too small for her?

George Hunt didn't have his Dodge?

Dorthey Young didn't take art?

Esther Vinson wore curls?

V. Graves didn't play basketball?

Donnebell Lechlitrner didn't have a case?

Mr. Kibbey. "What happened when Pandora opened the box?"

Inez Beard. "She got stung."

A small boy after being kissed by aunts, great aunts, grandmothers, etc., said in desperation: "Gee I'm never going to get married."

"Why?" asked his mother.

"Aw, it will be one more to be kissed."

Oh well cheer up if we don't have the League of Nations.

Some girls' idea of a bore is a young man who has good sense.

CHARACTER SKETCHES

Freshman. "A log, a groan, no brains to spare."

Soph. "A snag, a stone, freshmen despair."

Juniors. "A way, a throne, and brains to spare."

M. H. S. ARITHMETIC

Small person plus lots of books equals Freshie.

Tall person plus dignified looks equals Senior.

Mary Katherine plus Study equals 5A plus 'S.

Miss Hudelson minus smile equals something unusual.

Mr. Mueller plus 5 boys equals Star basketball team.

M. H. S. minus Miss Kern equals different place.

June plus examination equals vacation.

Ruth Roggeman. "Oh Girls, I had the most wonderful time with Rodger last night."

Mr. Kibby. "Now this is going to be an absolute monarchy and I am going to be King."

Ivan Brady. "Down with the King."

James Grant. "There goes a couple freshly married."

Seward Bauer. "I hear a robin crowing."

If teachers would only abide by the maxim, "Children should be seen and not heard."

Teacher (to pupil who is looking back)
"May I have your front?"

Mr. Semler. "Where is your excuse for the eighth."

Freshie. "Oh I forgot it. Wait I will write another."

Freshie. "Why are cats like unskilled surgeons?"

Senior. "Because they mew till late and destroy patients."

WHY, ALEX!

Alex Campbell. "I am the donkey."

GOT HIM WORRYING

Tom. "You don't really imagine that girls actually propose sometimes, do you?"

Dick. "Well all I know is that this is Leap Year and some girls are getting married who never got married before."

AFTER THE BIG RAINFALL

(Bad Breaks)

In the next play he punted the ball to Bell, who ran back to the midfield before he was drowned.

Student (translating) "The er-er-er-man-er-er-then-er-er--"

Professor. "Don't laugh, Gentlemen, to err is human."

AIN'T IT A FACT

That when you know one swell girl to take to the hop, you are unable to get well, for various reasons?

That the leading man in the opera doesn't do the part as well as you could have done it?

That you always know everything in the course except what the Prof. asks you for exam questions?

ON THE WAY

Freshman. "I woke up last night with a terrible sensation that my watch was gone. The impression was so strong that I got up and looked."

Sophomore. "Well, was it gone?"

Freshman. "No it was going."
The Campus.

Senior. "Say, Freshie, do you know why your head is like a typewriter?"

Freshie. "No, why?"

Senior. "It's under wood."

A wise Freshie. "The driver of an automobile hit a tree going fifty miles per hour."

DECEMBER TIME ENOUGH

Jessie. "Have you mentioned leap year in the presence of your beau as yet?"

Tessie. "Do I look foolish enough to pull a scare like that on a shy young man and I not knowing where my next steady is coming from?"

"In case of death, call us on the phone, wherever you may be and our representative will be there with the least possible delay."—From an undertaking advertisement in New York Times.

Teacher. "What is the connecting link between animal and vegetable kingdom?"

Class (in unison). "Hash."

Pompous Soph. "Did you know sheep are the most stupid things in the world?"

Brilliant Freshie. "Yes, my lamb."

Fresh young thing. "I just adore monkeys."
Hard-boiled. "Humph, ancestor worship."

Stude. "I always thought that the poet Milton was a religious man, but I think different now."

Ditto. "How come?"

Stude. "Why Miss Day said he wrote some poems called 'Pair O' Dice Lost' and 'Pair O' Dice Regained'."

It was in a drawing class at school. "Sargent was a great artist," said the teacher. "With one stroke he could change a smiling face into a sorrowful one."

"That ain't nothing," piped up Johnny. "Me mother does that to me lots of times."

"Who was that strange girl you were with last night?"

"That wasn't a strange girl. Just the same old one painted over."

"What is the difference between a cravat and a necktie?"

"About three dollars."

NO LIKE

He took her rowing on the lake.

She vowed she'd go no more—

I asked her why—her answer came.

"He only hugged the shore."

The art department has unveiled a camouflage which will guarantee the wearer to slip through the pearly gates.

We will mention Mary Layer right here.

The whole class doesn't know her. I fear.

When we are not on a lark

She keeps back in the dark

Where only one boy can get near.

In school Dessa seems so sedate.

One might doubt that she e'er had a date.

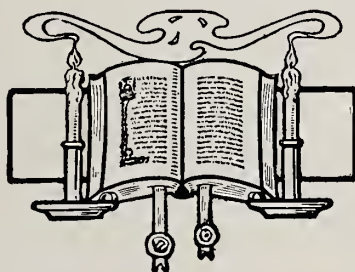

But I'll say on the side

That this fact she can't hide

Towards one boy she don't bear any hate.

Miss Day in one of her excited moments. "Them there seats is to be left unless they is being set on."

Giving You Service

*T*HERE'S something we give here that's as important as the merchandise—our service. It goes with every article you purchase here; you can count on it whether you come in to buy or just to look. In fact "service to you" is always the first consideration with every member of our selling force

You may wonder exactly what we mean by service. Here's what it means to you:

1. We're more interested in what we can do for you than in what you can do for us.
2. Service to you is our idea in business; and service means helping you get what you want.
3. Service means the guaranteed quality of what we sell; and that means we have to know it's good before we'll sell it.
4. Service means guaranteeing you satisfaction at all times.

Power Transmission Machinery

A GREAT man once said that the most valuable lesson he learned in college was where to find things. When you've learned that, you've learned a lot.

You'll find everything for the mechanical transmission of power in the Dodge line and in the Dodge line only. "Get it of Dodge" is a college education in one sentence when it comes to buying power transmission machinery.

Uncle Sam learned it and kept the Dodge plant filled with orders during the war. The E. I. Dupont de Nemours Company learned it and ordered Dodge equipment throughout for the plant they built to make 1,000,000 pounds of powder a day.

In every corner of the globe where machinery runs, you'll find graduates of the "Get It of Dodge" School

Cast Iron Split Pulley

THERE are places where wood pulleys operate to the best advantage. Other places should have steel pulleys and still others need iron pulleys. The user of Dodge Products can find all kinds of pulleys in the Dodge line. No other maker of transmission machinery can supply all three types. The Dodge wood pulley shop is the largest in the world. The same holds true of the Dodge iron pulley foundry. The steel pulley works have a capacity of 1,500 pulleys a day. No other manufacturer builds or sells as many steel pulleys as Dodge.

Ball and Socket Hanger

DODGE Hangers hold the shaft firmly. The bearing fits into the hanger with a ball and socket joint—like your shoulder joint—which allows the shaft to vary its direction without binding.

Dodge bearings have oil chambers which will hold a liberal supply of oil. In the ring oiling bearing, a ring rests on the shaft and revolves through the oil chamber bringing up enough oil to keep the shaft lubricated.

In the capillary bearing, a block of wood with saw cuts through it rests in the oil chamber and carries the oil to the shaft by capillary attraction. Neither ring nor capillary require attention more than once in six months.
